Bolivar Women's Clinic Grand Opening

Time: 12:00pm

Bolivar Medical Center is thrilled to announce the grand opening of Bolivar Women's Clinic, a dedicated space for comprehensive women's health services, with a ribbon-cutting ceremony hosted by the Cleveland-Bolivar County Chamber of Commerce on November 13 at 12:00 noon. The celebration will take place at 907 East Sunflower Road and is open to the public. Attendees are invited to come and go as needed during their lunch hour to enjoy hors d'oeuvres prepared by Chef Chris Blaine and enter for a door prize drawing.

Dr. Bradley R. Baugh, MD, FACOG, shared his excitement about the new clinic space and his appreciation for the support of his team. "We are happy to continue offering women's health services in Bolivar County in the new clinic. I am deeply grateful for the dedication of the staff, whose support and passion for personalized care make this clinic a great fit for our community."

Jimmy Young, CEO of Bolivar Medical Center, echoed this sentiment, emphasizing the value of providing healthcare access for the community. "We are excited to welcome Bolivar Women's Clinic to our medical family and provide much-needed services focused on the specific health needs of women in our area. Our goal is to continually elevate healthcare access and quality for the residents of Bolivar County, and this clinic brings us one step closer to that vision."

Bolivar Women's Clinic offers a full range of women's health services, from routine wellness exams to specialized care. Join us on November 13 to celebrate this new chapter in women's health for our community.
